Reports:

Fayetteville City Schools:

Dr. Janine Wilson, Director of Schools, was absent. No report was presented.

Fayetteville Lincoln County Public Library:

Library Director Jill Rael reported that the library is planning its summer reading program for this year, with “On Your Mark, Get Set, Read!” as the theme. Numerous things are in the works for that. Computer classes are continuing on March 12th and 26th at 11:00 a.m. Teen Tech Week is this week including a beginning coding class. March 9th will be movie night, and Saturday will be the tech open house. The Library is forming a new partnership with Coldwater Autism Association to let everyone in the community know that the library is an autism friendly place and a place for all children. There will be some autism friendly spaces in the library and joint activities will be conducted. Terri Anderson is now on the Library Board and is serving as the Regional Representative. Goosebumps Night of the Living Library events are planned for both the county and city school system during spring break. Sharon Edwards, Children's Librarian, reported her goals and future ideas for the library. Edwards reported the risk of low literacy and the effects it has on children and how the library and Storytime can help.

Fire Report:

Fire Chief Danny Travis reported that the Fire Department had seventy-four (74) calls for service, forty-nine (49) medical calls, seven (7) accidents with injury and the volunteers logged one hundred eleven (111) hours. The Fire Department had a bid-opening for a new fire engine today at 2:00 p.m.

Police Report:

Police Chief Richard Howell reported that there were one hundred five (105) incidents with seventy-four (74) arrests, sixty-two (62) traffic accidents, and fifty-five (55) citations, for a total police activity of one thousand three hundred fifty-two (1,352) events. Detectives have five hundred fifty-nine (559) cases on hand, ten (10) new cases opened and five (5) closed and four (4) arrests.

Recreation Report:

Ricky Honey, Recreation Director, reported that the Easter Egg hunt will be Tuesday, March 15 at 5 p.m. at the Don Davidson Complex. Baseball, softball and soccer sign-ups are continuing and you can come by the Recreation Center from 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. Monday thru Saturday and 12:30 – 4:00 p.m. on Sundays to sign-up. Park reservations are filling up for the summer. Call or come by the Rec Center to book your event. March 16th at 5:00 p.m. will be the official opening of the dog park at the Don Davidson Lion's Club Complex.
